San Jose Convention Center

PRESS CREDENTIAL INFORMATION & APPLICATION

About the NAHJ Convention

The National Association of Hispanic Journalists' 25th Annual Convention and Media & Career Expo will take place June 13-16, 2007, at the San Jose McEnery Convention Center in San Jose, California. NAHJ's annual convention is the nation's largest gathering of Hispanic journalists. More than 2,000 journalists and media executives from across the country are expected to attend.

NAHJ's Media & Career Expo is the largest job fair for Hispanic journalists. The expo provides opportunities for media organizations, non-media organizations, non-profits and government agencies a forum to interact and recruit many of the nation's most respected journalists. The expo will also showcase training opportunities in the career resource center and feature discussions with prominent authors.

A convention overview and schedule of events is available at www.nahj.org.

Press Credential Information

Press credentials for the NAHJ 25th Annual Convention will be restricted to journalists who are assigned to cover the event. Credential applications must be submitted via email to rsantana@nahj.org by 5 p.m. on Tuesday, June 12, 2007. Only a limited number of credentials will be granted.

Please bring a letter of request signed by your supervisor on company letterhead to the convention on the day you choose to cover. This letter must be presented to receive press credentials.

Contact Rosa María Santana with any questions by phone at 213-627-0388 or via e-mail at rsantana@nahj.org

Press Check-In

Credentials must be picked up daily at the press booth located in the registration area near the entrance to the convention center. Please bring your letter of request signed by a supervisor to the press booth when you pick up your credentials.

Press passes are only valid for one day.

Broadcasting Live at the Convention

Companies seeking to broadcast their radio/TV program live from the convention must apply for credentials as indicated above. Credential applications must be submitted for each person working on the broadcast. Credentialed broadcast media must then contact Rosa María Santana at (213) 627-0388 or rsantana@nahj.org to make all logistical arrangements, including audio-visual needs, and will be responsible for their own audio-visual costs.

Acceptance and Notification

NAHJ reserves the right to decline any requests for credentials. Applicants requesting press credentials will be notified of their credential status via e-mail upon receipt of the application form.
