

Spend your summer in New York City and gain the experience needed to start your career as a journalist!

NBC Universal and The National Association of Hispanic Journalists (NAHJ) are proud to offer 2 students the opportunity to become NBC fellows and join one of the following NBC News programs for the summer of 2009:

- America's # 1 morning news program, the Today Show or
- The top ranked evening news program, Nightly News with Brian Williams, or
- Primetime NBC's own Dateline, or
- One of NBC's local Owned and Operated Stations

Two students will be provided a stipend in the amount of $500 a week for 10 weeks to live in New York City, totaling $5,000 for each student.

NBC Fellows must meet the following criteria:

- Enrolled at an accredited college or university.
- On track to receive a bachelor or advanced degree from a college or university.
- Currently of sophomore standing or above.

NBC News will determine which student will be placed within each of the shows but students can inform us of their preferences. All candidates must submit an application, a cover letter explaining why you believe you should be selected for the program, and a resume, ALL OF WHICH MUST BE RECEIVED BY March 25, 2009. Go to NAHJ's website to download an application, www.nahj.org.

What is the National Association of Hispanic Journalists?

NAHJ is the primary association for Hispanic journalists in this country; it has close to 2,000 members. Established in 1984, the mission of NAHJ is to increase the number of Latino journalists working in U.S. newsrooms and to improve the media coverage of the Latino community.

The program is sponsored by NBC Universal.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: MUST BE RECEIVED BY MARCH 25, 2009
